Hi, my name is Alessio. This presentation is meant to explain some aesthetic choices I made in my portfolio, which you can find on my GitHub profile. I hope you enjoy it. Happy viewing!

Color Choice

I chose the first 2 colors (green and brown) because they remind me of my personality and one of my passions, the mountains. Cream, on the other hand, because I was looking for a contrasting color to write on top of the brown, and like the other two colors, it conveys calmness to me

Font Choice

The choice of font fell on Fredoka because it seems to me a font that is both serious and playful, and I wanted to echo the rounded structure of the boxes.
